Family Is United After Ten Years

DANVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It was only natural that painter Chester Sparkman should ask his young co-worker, "What's your name, boy?" Chester was hardly prepared for his reply: "Oscar Sparkman."

It was the first meeting of the father and son since Oscar, an older brother and three younger sisters were taken to an orphanage in 1957 after the death of their mother.

The reunion came in the Sparkmans' home town and on a job where the father and son worked for more than a week before finding out who each other was.

After placing his children in the Soldiers and Sailors Childrens Home in Knightstown, Ind., Chester Sparkman migrated to Ohio, Virginia and finally to Colorado for work.

"There never seemed to be enough money left over to get back to Indiana," he said. "And I ain't much for writing."

"I finally got back to Indiana last year and went to see the children but they weren't in the home any more. Every time I found out where Oscar was working I went to look but he had moved to another job by the time I got there."

Oscar, now 19, came back to Danville and last January went to work at the Pioneer Playhouse. His brother and a sister live nearby. Two other sisters were adopted by a family in Boswell, Ind.

Actor Claude Rains Dies at Age 77

LACONIA, N.H. (AP) — Watching the replay of his first Hollywood screen test, Claude Rains cringed.

"I was horrified," the actor said. "I stank. I knew immediately that I hadn't the slightest chance for a film career."

A director at another studio, casting "The Invisible Man," saw the test and said: "I don't care what he looks like. That's the voice I want."

So the mellow-voiced Rains, a suave sophisticate who was already a star of the London and Broadway stage, got the role. It launched a motion picture career that spanned a quarter of a century.

Rains died Tuesday at Lakes Region Hospital of abdominal bleeding and shock after a lingering illness. He was 77.

In an acting career that began with an appearance at age 11 in a London stage production of "Sweet Nell of Old Drury," Rains played charming lovers, ruthless villains, sympathetic scoundrels and doting fathers.

Chinese Never Tired of the Name Mao

By CHIE NISHIO
PEKING (AP) — Wherever you go, Mao, Mao, Mao.

The Chinese don't seem to get tired of reading about Mao Tse-tung, hearing about him, seeing his face plastered across walls, shops, and buildings all over China.

When we crossed the border from Hong Kong to Shumchun, each member of our party received a copy of Mao's quotations. Then we went to another room of the station to watch a 20-minute song and dance performance by 15 musicians and dancers. The theme: Chairman Mao Tse-tung.

On the 2 1/2-hour train ride to Canton, in the first class, or "soft seat" section we got tea and the conductresses began another performance. But first, an interpreter urged us to read from our little red Mao books.

The songs were of Mao's greatness, or taken from the book of quotations. On the blouses of our 20-year-old conductresses were pinned small red cameos of Mao.

After a while we got used to opening our books; we sort of liked it.

We'd sing songs when the conductresses asked us. We didn't mind because they were fun.

As the train rolled through the countryside, with its red soil, its poor—and sometimes prosperous—farms, its sparse trees and broad vistas, I thought how they built the Great Wall. How many people without machines; so flag of the United States.

many, many years to build, like the pyramids of Egypt; the suffering, the hard life.

In Canton, another show, this time by the army. They were waiting for us at the station, with a picture of Mao and posters proclaiming: "Down with Liu Shao-chi." Soldiers gripped Mao's little red book in their hands.

Anti-Vietnam Groups Are Criticized

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Democratic Gov. Sid McMath, frequently mentioned as a possible opponent next year for U.S. Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., joined Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Tuesday in attacking anti-Vietnam War demonstrators.

McMath, a brigadier general in the Marine Corps Reserve, said that despite the sacrifices and prosperity, "there are those here and abroad who make a career of attacking this country, of questioning our motives and accusing America of arrogance, pride and imperialism."

Fulbright authored a book recently, "The Arrogance of Power," in which he questioned the nation's attitude and policies toward Vietnam.

"This nation has poured forth its treasure and the blood of its sons in the cause of freedom, not only for ourselves, but for the cause of freedom in the world," McMath said.

"It is a privilege to meet with a group of citizens who can still pledge allegiance to the people without machines; so flag of the United States."

3 Held at Polaris Base in Spy Probe

By RODNEY PINDER
LONDON (AP) — An intensive security investigation focused today on the U.S. Polaris submarine base at Holy Loch following arrest of a British bookie and a German seaman on spy charges and the detention of a U.S. Navy sailor.

A team of detectives from Scotland Yard's special branch flew to the floating American base in western Scotland. Some were disguised as tourists, with fishing rods and waders.

Their presence around the rocky shores of the inlet 76 miles west of Glasgow came to light after Capt. George Ellis, commander of the nuclear-armed Polaris squadron, disclosed that a sailor stationed aboard the Polaris depot ship Simon Lake had been confined to the ship and forbidden any outside contact or visitors.

Ellis refused to identify the sailor.

"An intensive investigation is going on," he said. "There is one U.S. Navy man involved. I cannot go into this any further at the moment."

Ellis made his announcement 36 hours after the appearance in court in Dunoon, a town of 9,000 persons three miles away, of William McAffer, 30, a local bookie, who was charged with violation of the Official Secrets Act. He was ordered held without bail for eight days. The prosecutor said he had tried to get secret information affecting British and American security from a U.S. sailor.

The J.A. West Company operating stores in Arkansas and Louisiana, was founded in 1923 by the late J.A. West and his brothers, the sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.H. West, a farm family of near Rose Pine, La.

The general manager, E. M. Risinger, said that the policy set by the late Mr. West of dealing fair at all times and giving every customer an honest value with the understanding that satisfaction is guaranteed on ever purchase is a basic reason for the success of West Department stores.

On August 18, 1966 the J.A. West Co. opened its new store in the Hope Village Shopping Center. With this new and most modern store West has added the latest in fixture design and larger selections of quality merchandise at popular prices. In addition West now offers a credit plan for its valued customers, plus a spacious store front parking lot for shopping convenience.

The West Department Stores feature self service type fixtures with check out registers for faster, more convenient service for customers.

They also have salespeople to courteously and efficiently help and assist in any way that the public wishes to be served.

The manager, Harry Cagle, said that the outstanding values would be offered throughout the entire anniversary celebration. Harry invites the public to visit at the store at any time, and would be happy to have you as a guest for coffee and cake between the hours of 9 and 11 a.m. and 2 and 4 p.m. each day Thursday, June 1 through Saturday, June 3.

Redlegs Pull Triple Play, Trip Cards

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

After waiting eight years for his first big break, Dick Hughes was prepared to wait 55 minutes for the chance of a lifetime.

His patience proved to be a virtue — but his fast ball let him down just a few steps short of the Hall of Fame.

Hughes, a 29-year-old rookie who labored for eight years in the minor leagues before catching on with St. Louis late last season, pitched seven perfect innings against Cincinnati Tuesday night, striking out 12 and weathering a 55-minute rain delay after the sixth.

But hot-hitting Tony Perez led off the Reds' eighth with a triple, igniting a two-run rally, and the National League leaders nulled a 2-1 victory over Hughes and the Cardinals by pulling off a triple play in the ninth.

In another cliff-hanger at San Francisco, Jim Bunning ended opposing pitcher Juan Marichal's eight-game winning string with a ninth-inning homer, lifting the Philadelphia Phillies past the Giants 5-4.

Pittsburgh divided a doubleheader with Houston, winning the nightcap 4-3 after the Astros took the first game 3-2, Atlanta split with the Chicago Cubs, bowing 12-5 in the opener before rebounding for a 4-1 victory, and Los Angeles slugged the New York Mets 7-2 in a single game.

In American League twin bills, Detroit swept the Chicago White Sox 4-2 and 4-3, Washington won a pair from Kansas City 6-2 and 4-3, Boston beat

New Hurler Could Settle Orioles Down

By GORDON BEARD

Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Harry Dalton, gaining a reputation as a bold baseball trader, has 16 more days to pull off another big deal before being stymied by the June 15 deadline.

"Nothing is imminent," Baltimore's director of player personnel said today, "but if we find in talking to other clubs that we can help ourselves, we're interested. We haven't shut the door to further deals."

Dalton made a major swap Monday night, sending suspended rookie first baseman Mike Epstein and young pitcher Frank Bertina to the Washington Senators for veteran pitcher Pete Richert.

"We made the first deal of any consequence," Dalton said, and we landed what we were looking for—an established pitcher.

"But in the next 16 days, there's a good chance that other clubs will want to make trades. We're willing to listen, and if we can strengthen our club, we'll deal."

Dalton was given credit for making the final decision—after outgoing Orioles General Manager Lee MacPhail laid the groundwork—on the 3-for-1 deal which brought slugger Frank Robinson to Baltimore after the 1965 season.

Robinson led the Orioles to the American League pennant and a World Series victory in 1966, and the deal for Richert could have equally far-reaching effects.

The 27-year-old pitcher, rated by Dalton as "one of the top left-handers in baseball," could settle a Baltimore mound staff bothered by ineffectiveness and sore arms.

Richert is 2-6 this season but won 29 games for eighth-place teams in Washington the past two years. He will pitch against the Senators Saturday.

Bertina, also a left-hander, is a 23-year-old who is rated as having great potential. He is 1-2 for the season.

eight in a row after dropping his first three decisions. Tom Haller hit two homers for the Giants, tying the score with a bases-empty blast in the eighth.

Donn Clendenon's double in the eighth inning scored the winning run for Pittsburgh in the nightcap after Rusty Staub's sixth inning homer gave the Astros their first-game victory.

Rookie Don Wilson checked the Pirates on seven hits in the opener and Ed Mathews hit his 496th career homer for the Astros in the second game.

Mack Jones drove in three runs with a triple.

Twin Win Gives Tigers Slight Lead

By RON RAPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Detroit Tigers are going to have to teach Willie Horton how to slide and the Chicago White Sox are going to have to teach Ron Hansen how to keep his mouth shut.

Horton, the burly Tiger outfielder, drove in a key run with a single in the first game of his club's doubleheader victory over the Sox Tuesday, but when he tried to stretch it into a double, he was out on a throw from catcher J. C. Martin to Hansen despite an attempt at a slide.

Hansen, understandably pleased with himself even though he had a three-inch gash on his left arm from Horton's spikes, made a remark. That tore it for Willie who went after the infielder with a vengeance.

It took the entire Detroit team the better part of five minutes to calm him down.

And he never did calm down enough to suit Chicago. In the eighth inning of the nightcap, Horton hit a tremendous home run to the upper deck in right field, tying the game and setting the stage for the eventual victory.

The Tigers moved into first place in the American League, 1 1/2 games ahead of the Sox with their double triumph, 4-2 and 4-3. In other Memorial Day doubleheader action, Baltimore split with Cleveland, 5-4 and 2-3, Washington swept two from Kansas City 6-2 and 4-3 in 11 innings, Boston won a pair from California 5-4 and 6-1 and New York split with Minnesota 4-3 and 0-3.

In the National League, Houston and Pittsburgh split, 3-2 and 3-4, Chicago divided a pair with Atlanta 12-5 and 1-4, Philadelphia edged San Francisco 5-4, Cincinnati nudged St. Louis 2-1 and Los Angeles whipped New York 7-2.

Hansen, who at 6-foot-3 and 200 pounds was able to handle himself adequately in the fracas with the 5-10, 195-pound Horton, said later he couldn't remember what he'd said to so infuriate the Tiger outfielder.

But umpire John Rice described Hansen as saying, "Nice going, You're going to have to come in here again."
For his part, Horton said, "He thought I tried to spike him, I don't know all those trick slides."

White Ford Retires From Baseball

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Whitey Ford has thrown his last pitch, and another chapter of New York Yankee history is over.

The 38-year-old southpaw, the winningest pitcher in Yankee history, stood before a battery of microphones Tuesday and said he was retiring as a player because of a bone spur in his left elbow.

A short time later he stood in street clothes on the field at Yankee Stadium to receive a thunderous, standing ovation from 41,136 fans present for a doubleheader with Minnesota.

And with the flood of cheers came a host of memories of what Whitey Ford had done for and had been to the Yankees since joining them in the middle of the 1950 season.

He won 236 games and lost 106 for a percentage of .690, the highest for any pitcher with 200 or more victories since 1900.

In compiling that record, the fun-loving lefty set a bunch of team and World Series records. His Series marks include 33 2-3 consecutive scoreless innings, breaking Babe Ruth's record; most victories, 10; most starts, 22; and most strikeouts, 94.

Another Try for Big Race Set Today

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The 51st 500 mile race field was called back at 10 a.m. EST today to resume the contest postponed by a rainout Tuesday after 45 miles. It was the first overnight recess ever for the historic event.

The order of line, single file instead of the initial three abreast, changed considerably after the Memorial Day sprint, dominated completely by a new type of car.

Parnelli Jones and his glowing red turbine car, sixth in the original lineup, were in first place with four track records already.

Mario Andretti, who started first Tuesday after smashing all records in the 10-mile elimination heats, not only was down to 32nd in the Indian file but actually was six laps behind Jones. His crew had to change his clutch Tuesday.

Roger McCluskey, dogged by mechanical trouble in the qualifications, had charged up from 22nd to 10th place in the short run before the rain.

Lloyd Ruby, one of the favorites and a leader in most of the 1966 event, had disappeared entirely with a burned piston.

Graham Hill of London, the 1966 winner, was an early visitor to the pits after a delayed start and said "something serious" seemed to be wrong with his Lotus-Ford.

Tribute Paid to Guitarist

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — More than 8,000 fans of Chet Atkins jammed Municipal Auditorium Sunday to pay tribute to the Nashville guitarist and recording executive. Arthur Fiedler, director of the Boston Pops Orchestra, led the Nashville Symphony Orchestra in a musical salute and was joined on stage by Atkins and several Grand Ole Opry stars. The concert was a benefit for the Florence Crittendon Home and a celebration of Atkins' 20th anniversary in the recording industry. Atkins is head of RCA Victor's recording operations in Nashville.

Travelers Split With Amarillo

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers split a Texas League doubleheader with the Amarillo Sodas here Tuesday, losing the opener 2-1 and winning the nightcap by the same score.

A walk by Joe Arcia and a single by Tommy Smith allowed Arkansas to grab a one-run lead in the second inning of the first game, but Amarillo pulled ahead to stay in the fifth on Mick Sinnerud's double, Brock Davis' single and a two-bagger down the left field line by pinch hitter John Griffin.

The Travelers mounted a last-gasp threat as Arcia singled and took third on Smith's double with one out in the seventh against Ron Caylin, the second Amarillo hurler.

Reliever Steve Shea fanned pinch hitter Jim Procopio and issued an intentional walk to Billy Wolff. Bobby Dews hit a high bouncer over Shea's head, but shortstop Lee Bales grabbed it to get a game-ending force-out at second.

Starter Paul Doyle, who left for a pinch hitter after allowing four hits in five innings, claimed his second victory in three decisions. Joe DiFazio, who held the Sodas to one hit through four innings, absorbed his second loss against three wins.

In the second game, delayed 59 minutes by rain, two unearned runs and the combined three-hit pitching of Sal Campisi and Jerry Robertson gave the Travelers their victory.

This is the finest convertible made in America

This is the Lincoln Continental convertible. It is the only four door convertible made in America. It is the only convertible we make.

We who design and sell Continental can see no logic at all in making 2 or 3 or 4 convertibles. If we did we'd have to decide what to take away from one model, and what to put on another. This is not the Continental way.

We take all the good things we can put in a convertible, and we put them in one convertible. The car you drive is neither more than the next Continental, nor is it less.

But it is certainly far more than any other convertible you can own. It should be. It's Continental.

The student ducked two rounds of spades and won the third lead. Then he proceeded to play out dummy's six hearts with elaborate ceremony. At least, he went through deep celebration at each play after the second.
East had discarded a heart on the third spade and his discards in order on the next four hearts were deuce-seven of clubs and six-nine of diamonds. South's discards were three-four of clubs and deuce-eight of diamonds, while West jettisoned the nine of clubs, three of diamonds, jack of clubs and jack of diamonds.
The student had watched every card intently and the professor could almost see the wheels turning as he really huddled before making his next play. Finally he led a diamond and cashed the ace and king for his contract.
East took the last two tricks with the ace and queen of clubs. The student apologized to his partner for not having gone after the overtrick. Then he turned to the professor, who was kibitzing, and asked,
"Is there any way that I could have figured out from the play that East would hold the ace of clubs? I couldn't be sure and did not want to jeopardize my contract. After all, if West held the ace of clubs he couldn't make four hearts."
The professor replied,
"There was no way you could tell from the play but you did all your thinking along the wrong lines. I knew where the ace of clubs was at trick three."
"How could you?" asked the student.
The professor replied, "The moment East showed out on the third spade lead I knew that West held a five-card spade suit headed by king-queen-jack-ten. If West had also held the ace of clubs he would have overcalled your diamond opening with one spade. He had not overcalled.
He could not hold that ace."

President, Cabinet to Air Troubles

By FRANCES LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Middle East and Vietnam are expected to get priority attention at top-level White House meetings today with President Johnson back from a Memorial Day weekend in Texas.

He had joined the nation on Memorial Day in prayers for its war dead and expressed hopes for "a brighter day of peace" as tensions mounted in the Middle East and fighting continued in Vietnam.

The President and his Cabinet were to gather at noon. Johnson plans a luncheon meeting an hour later with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Walt W. Rostow, Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs.

The President spent almost four days at his LBJ Ranch in the Texas hill country near Johnson City. He flew back with Mrs. Johnson aboard his big Air Force jet plane, landing early today.

The First Lady had gone to Texas Thursday to spend time with her younger daughter, Mrs. Patrick J. Nugent, who is expecting her first baby in the next few weeks.

The President and his wife joined members of their staff and neighbors in a special private memorial prayer service on the ranch house lawn, with Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Christian Church preachers from nearby churches participating.

The President made public a Memorial Day message from South Vietnam's chief of state, Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu, which extolled the sacrifices of American fighting men.

Thieu said they had joined in a noble cause and their sacrifices would be a bulwark against tyranny.

In an answering message Johnson said, "We look forward to a brighter day of peace and progress in Vietnam, in Asia and throughout the world."

Charters Have to Be Filed
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit will be filed to revoke the charters of all non-profit organizations in Pulaski County that have not filed charters with the secretary of state by June 15, Prosecutor Richard B. Adkisson said Monday.

Adkisson has recently criticized numerous private clubs which are classified as non-profit organizations.

Several years ago, many of the non-profit corporations were organized under a law that required them to register with the circuit clerk, Adkisson said.

Patients in Hospitals Hear These Tiring Remarks Over, Over
By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that hospital patients get tired of hearing — and over hearing:

"Well, well, well. And how do we feel this morning?"

"You're being put on a 800-calorie-a-day diet. While you're here you might as well take off a few pounds."

"If he tries to pinch me just one more time, you'll have to assign him another nurse."

"Naughty, naughty boy. If you don't eat all your breakfast prunes, sir, I'll just have to bring them back to you again for lunch."

"I don't know who brought that bottle to you, sir, but I'll have to take it from you. The only beverage you're allowed is lukewarm water. Shall I bring you a fresh glass? You're allowed as much as you want."

"Wake up, wake up! It's 6 o'clock."

"This is the day the doctor takes the bandage off. Some of the patients really scream when that happens, but in your case I don't think it will hurt that bad."

"The doc won't let you smoke yet, eh, Jim? Well, as a visitor, I guess that rule doesn't apply to me. You don't mind if I light up a cigar, do you?"

"I don't know why you com-

Boasts That Economy Can Accommodate the War Highly Inflated Baptists Get Ready for Revival Week

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The proud boast so often heard that the nation's huge economy can accommodate with little effort is being shown more and more today to be highly inflated with air.

It is a small war relative to a big economy, but it is having its effect.

Vietnam will cost something more than $22 billion this coming fiscal year, less than 3 percent of the gross national product of about $765 billion. But this financially "easy" war contributed to inflation last year and it might force a general tax hike this year. That is impact.

The budget deficit, it now appears, will top any previous deficit, totaling perhaps $30 billion, a good deal of it the result of the Vietnam war.

And, since the budget deficit will be potentially inflationary, pressure has increased for a cut force jet plane, landing early today.

There is no question, therefore, that Vietnam is having its impact; no nation can afford such spending without consequences.

Vietnam is, however, only a fraction of our total commitment to military or defense spending. President Johnson's budget provides for $73 billion to be so spent, a figure that likely will swell.

Since projections for the gross national product, the total of a nation's goods and services, range from $740 billion to $790 billion for the year, defense spending still is likely to be no more at any time than about 10 percent of GNP.

In the Korean War, when defense expenditures were lower, they represented a far higher percentage of gross national product, which then was about $265 billion. Again, although Vietnam is big in relation to Korea, it is smaller than Korea in relation to GNP.

It is this enormous size of the American production machine, many times larger than most other nations, that hides much of Vietnam's impact. But that impact is there. There is no debate about it.

What is still debatable is the extent of the pressure on the economy.

Arkansas Killed in War
WASHINGTON (AP) — Spec.

4 Teddy G. Talley of Marked Tree was one of 91 men listed by the Defense Department Monday as killed in action in the Vietnam War.

Mr. Hardin has been supplying the Presbyterian Church of Prescott since last fall while the church was without pastor. He has also been assisting in the educational work of the Hope Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin and their children moved to Arkansas from Florida last summer. He has had wide experience as a minister and also as an educator. He is connected with the Hope School system and spent the last school year in active work for the schools.

Can't Explain Why He Was Selected
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Albuquerque lawyer Benigno C. Hernandez, who has no diplomatic experience and never has been to South America, says he doesn't know why President Johnson selected him to be the next U.S. ambassador to Paraguay.

Johnson announced Tuesday he would nominate Hernandez, 49, to succeed William P. Snow, a career diplomat who is returning to Washington. The appointment is subject to Senate confirmation.

Hernandez said the first he heard of the nomination was two weeks ago when the State Department advised him he was under consideration. "They didn't say how they got my name," he said.

On Tuesday a "Mr. Cox from the White House called and said I had been selected. I'm very honored," Hernandez said.

Stranded
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Little Rock man and three children, stranded on the Arkansas River here for 16½ hours, were rescued today by the Little Rock Fire Department.

All were reported in good condition. They clung to a pier from their boat during the ordeal.

Hand Grenade Load Overturns
WENDOVER, Utah (AP) — A semitrailer truck loaded with 38,500 pounds of fragmentation hand grenades overturned Sunday on U.S. 40 near this desert community.

Traffic on the busy highway through the Salt Lake desert was stopped for five hours until federal and state authorities determined the cargo wouldn't explode.

The driver and relief driver were seriously injured when the truck slid 174 feet on its side and came to rest astraddle the two-lane highway about 100 miles west of Salt Lake City.

Haiphong Fuel Dumps Blasted

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — U. S. Navy Jets from the carrier Hancock flew through a hail of missiles and antiaircraft fire today to bomb two fuel dumps less than four miles from the center of Haiphong.

The daylight raid on the dumps just across the Kua Kam River was the closest attack to either Hanoi or Haiphong in more than a week. There had been reports from Washington that U.S. raids on the immediate areas of North Vietnam's two major cities were being suspended temporarily while U.S. planes concentrated on less well defended targets.

Heavy ground fighting was reported in South Vietnam Tuesday and today. U.S. Marines were fighting near the demilitarized zone, troops of the 1st Cavalry, Airmobile Division had a rough fight south of Da Nang, and South Vietnamese forces reported they killed 106 Communists, also south of Da Nang, and 41 Viet Cong in a battle 85 miles southwest of Saigon.

U.S. headquarters reported three U.S. planes lost in the past 24 hours, two over North Vietnam, and a helicopter shot down and destroyed in South Vietnam. This raised the total losses to 564 combat planes in the war against North Vietnam and 181 in South Vietnam. One Navy pilot was missing and one Marine pilot was killed.

The Navy said the Haiphong raid hit the Loi Dong and Cong My petroleum dumps. Loi Dong, a major facility, had been bombed three times previously, but the raid on Cong My was the first. Both consist of fuel tanks, river piers and some buildings and other facilities.

Heavy Rains Drench Most of Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Heavy rains drenched wide portions of Arkansas today, causing some flash flooding in low lying areas as 13 counties in South Arkansas were placed under a severe thunderstorm watch that expired later in the day.

Rainfall of between one and two inches was reported in most of the state except in Northeast and North Central Arkansas, where amounts were smaller.

Residential streets at Conway were flooded this morning as cloudy skies dumped 1.30 inches of rain between 7 a.m. and 8:30 a.m., giving the city 3.70 inches in a 25½-hour period. Little Rock received one-half inch in a five-minute period this morning.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said no major change in the weather pattern is expected through Friday with showers expected in most areas of the state.

Maximum temperatures Tuesday ranged from the upper 70s to the mid 80s. Overnight lows were in the 60s.

Garrison Slows Up on Arrests
NEW YORK (AP) — New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison says "we are going to have to defer any further arrests" until later in his investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Garrison appeared Sunday on the ABC "Issues and Answers" radio and television program.

He said additional arrests probably will be made before the trial of Clay L. Shaw, New Orleans businessman accused by Garrison of participating in a conspiracy to kill Kennedy. No date has been set for his trial.

Garrison has maintained since Shaw was arrested in March that more arrests would be made.

Garrison contends that the Warren Commission, which investigated Kennedy's death was mistaken in its conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, fired the shots that killed Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

6th Fleet Commander Says Mission Is to Keep Sea Lanes Open

By BOB HORTON
ABOARD THE CARRIER AMERICA IN THE MEDITERRANEAN (AP) The commander of the powerful U.S. 6th Fleet, which is standing by for any call to action in the Middle East crisis, says he has what he calls open-ended military options to achieve his mission of keeping open international sea lanes.

Vice Adm. William I. Martin did not amplify on his statement Tuesday.

In an interview, Rear Adm. Lawrence R. Gels, commander of the fleet's Task Force 60, said, "We will do whatever we are directed to do by the President and that includes a whole range of options." Like Martin, he did not elaborate on the options.

Gels did say the immediate plan was for the carrier striking force to stay near Crete in the Mediterranean and, as he phrased it, wait and see.

The 6th Fleet carriers America and Saratoga have squadrons of A4 and F4 fighter aircraft capable of reaching the Suez Canal and the northern end of the Gulf of Aqaba, focal point of the dispute between Egypt and Israel. Egypt has proclaimed a blockade of the gulf for Israeli ships and of vessels carrying what it considers strategic goods to Israel.

The carrier Intrepid, with 70 attack planes, originally was bound for Vietnam but has been held in the Mediterranean. It is the only carrier of the three small enough to pass through the Suez Canal and could beef up American naval strength in the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aqaba. Martin declined to speculate on whether the Intrepid, which is not under his command, might be ordered to sail through the canal.

There appeared to be no serious concern about two Soviet vessels — a destroyer escort and a spy plane — which have been cruising near 6th Fleet ships for several days, although they have sometimes come within a few hundred feet.

Martin said the Soviet action was similar to "someone coming to a party uninvited, knocking over your chair and elbowing your guests." But he would not describe it as harassment.

"We're not overly concerned," one officer said. "They're usually friendly."

In any case the Soviet ships were considerably outnumbered. In addition to the carriers, the American ships include the guided missile cruisers Little Rock and Galveston and about a dozen destroyers.

WR to Face Newsmen Friday
MEMPHIS (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller will face a panel of Memphis newsmen Friday afternoon in a taped television show that will be shown Sunday.

The program, with a news conference format, is part of WMC-TV's "Closeup" series.
